

The Following Statement has been approved by the Essex Police Authority

"Essex Police Authority have received and is considering a report from the Metropolitan Police Service (MPS) following its investigation into expense overpayments to some members and the handling of those overpayments. The Authority acknowledge that the MPS is taking no further action however the Authority has not concluded its own internal investigation into the matter and will issue a further statement in due course."

Essex Police Authority

18 November 2011