Man charged with violent disorder

A 26-year-old man who gave no address when arrested has been charged with violent disorder following violence faced by police officers at Dale Farm on the morning of Wednesday, October 19.

The man has been bailed to attend Southend Magistrates Court on November 2.

His charging brings the total number of people charged in connection with incidents at Dale Farm to three. There have been 40 arrests to date. The majority of the remainder remain on police bail pending further investigations.
